WHAT IS FRINGE?

Welcome to the 15th Annual Hollywood Fringe Festival, an open-access, community-derived event celebrating freedom of expression and collaboration in the performing arts. Each June during the Hollywood Fringe, the arts infiltrate the Hollywood neighborhood! Fully equipped theaters, parks, clubs, churches, restaurants, and other unexpected places host hundreds of productions by local, national, and international arts companies and independent performers.

Participation in the Hollywood Fringe is completely open – there is no curating jury deciding whose work will be presented. This free-for-all approach underlines the festival's mission to be a platform for artists without barriers. By opening the gates to anyone with a vision, the festival is able to exhibit the most diverse and cutting-edge points of view the world has to offer. Additionally, by creating an environment where artists self-produce their work under a shared community ethos of inclusivity, the Fringe motivates its participants to cultivate a spirit of entrepreneurialism and professionalism in the arts.

MORE ABOUT FRINGE FESTIVALS

Fringe festivals exist throughout the world as havens for underground and emerging arts scenes. The fringe concept was incubated in Edinburgh, Scotland. In 1947, eight performance groups appeared uninvited on the "fringes" of the exclusive Edinburgh International Festival. The Edinburgh Fringe Festival has since grown into the largest arts festival in the world, with hundreds of artists, thousands of performances, and millions of patrons every summer. Since 1947, hundreds of fringe festivals have sprung up across the world! We have conferences to exchange ideas + ethos and more while retaining separate companies to serve our communities best. Learn more about fringe festivals and their many different models at www.worldfringe.com

FINDING SHOWS THAT MEET YOUR ACCESS NEEDS

Start with our website: hollywoodfringe.org
You can search for shows using accessibility flags selected by producers, such as size-inclusive seating, content warnings, flashing lights, relaxed or sensory-friendly environments, audio descriptions, ASL interpreters (listings with this tag: ASL), and more.

When purchasing a ticket you can make a personal accessibility request directly through the website. That request will be shared with the show's producer(s), who will do their best to accommodate your needs when possible.

To get the most out of these features, visit hollywoodfringe.org/accessibility. There, you'll find clear explanations of each accessibility flags and how to use them.

If you still need help finding performances that meet your access needs, come see us in person at Fringe HQ—we're here to help!

For any other questions, feel free to contact us at support@hollywoodfringe.org

FRINGE HQ

Fringe HQ will play host to our in-person Box Office & Merch Shop (The Box/Shop), and special events like Fringe Cabaret, Discover Fringe Arts Industry events, mixers, and so much more!

All are welcome at Fringe HQ! Join us at the Hollywood Ovation Center on Hollywood and Highland!

Closed on June 11th for the HFF25 Opening Night Party*

FRINGE BUTTONS

Buttons are your community badge identifying you as a member of the Fringe community and are your ticket into the below Fringe-sponsored events, including Opening Night. Wear your button with pride!

If you see someone with a button, consider asking them about their Fringe experience thus far: shows they loved, shows that inspire, shows they'd avoid. The best way to plan your days is through word-of-mouth from fellow Fringers.

Your Fringe Button ($5 for audiences, $3 for artists) also provides perks:

- $1 off one ticket per performance on tickets sold through the Fringe
- Discounts at participating Fringe Hot Spots, listed on page 7
- Entry to Fringe-sponsored events
- Evidence that you are a member of the Fringe community and a supporter of the arts

You can purchase a button online (hollywoodfringe.org/market) or at the Fringe HQ (6801 Hollywood Blvd, Suite 109). Buttons purchased online can be picked up at Fringe HQ during open hours.

FRINGE COMMUNITY

Community is central to the Hollywood Fringe. We bring together theatre makers and theatre lovers in a glorious celebration of the performing arts. Interested in tapping into the community?

Here are some opportunities to meet, eat, and drink with real Fringers:

May 31 & June 1, 7, 14, 15, 18, 21, 22: Fringe Cabaret (p. 10)
June 4: Fringe Runway (p. 51)
June 11: HFF25 Opening Night Party (p. 51)
June 30: Fringe Awards Ceremony + Closing Night Party (p. 51)

COMMUNITY AWARDS

Participating in the community by seeing shows, working on shows, managing venues, and writing reviews automatically makes you eligible to receive a ballot for our community-voted Fringe Awards, which can lead to big successes after the Fringe for the winners! Attend the Awards Ceremony at the Los Angeles LGBT Center on the evening of June 30th to see who wins!

REVIEWS

Giving feedback to an artist about their work or suggesting a show you loved to a friend are powerful contributions to the arts. Write reviews for individual Fringe shows at hollywoodfringe.org or update your own blog, Instagram, or Facebook account with your unique point of view (and be sure to use the hashtag #HFF25 and post on the Fringe Facebook page).

These reviews are essential when audiences have so many shows to choose from.

GETTING AROUND

It can be great to experience Fringe by bike or on foot. Get exercise and protect the environment! Many of the venues are within walking distance of each other, so it's possible to see four or five shows in close proximity all in one day. Use this Guide (and the Map on the back page) to plan your day accordingly.

Public Transportation: L.A.'s public transportation system (the Metro) includes buses and rail lines. There are three Hollywood stops along the B (Red) Line indicated on the Map (at the back of this Guide). You can plan your public transportation trip using the Metro Trip Planner at metro.net or hollywoodfringe.org/metro

If you do drive, please keep in mind that parking in Hollywood can be difficult on evenings, weekends, and street cleaning days, so make sure to allow for extra time. Always read the posted signs as most areas are restricted at certain times. There are many pay-to-park lots with flat rates from $8 to $15. See more at hollywoodfringe.org/parking

HOW TO DIGITALLY FRINGE

See this ⊡ on a show listing? That means there are digital performances available!

You can be anywhere in the world and watch live Fringe shows, or you may live locally and just want to enjoy a few shows from the comfort of your home. Select performances offer a chance to add some variety to your Fringe experience. More information about how to digitally Fringe at hollywoodfringe.org/livestream

2025 FRINGE SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM

The Hollywood Fringe Scholarship Program exists to expand and diversify the pool of artists producing work at the Hollywood Fringe Festival. Fringe Scholarships are awarded to first-time Hollywood Fringe producers who identify as one or more of the following identities: BIPOC (Black, Indigenous, and People of Color), disabled, d/Deaf, and/or blind.

Since the program's inception in 2016 the program has drastically grown, and this year the scholarship winners receive free registration, a $750 stipend towards production costs, a Fringe mentor, and exclusive networking opportunities as cherished members of the Fringe community.

Each year, a panel of experienced Fringers and LA theatre makers from diverse backgrounds gather to comb through a competitive roster of applicants and choose the shows they believe demonstrate theatrical excellence and contribute to the expansion of our community in line with the population and cultures of the greater Los Angeles community.

For more information, visit: hollywoodfringe.org/scholarships

We'd like to give a special thank you to the members of our community who help make this program possible:

FRINGE ARTIST FUND

Started in 2021, the Fringe Artist Fund continues to support low-income Angeleno artists who will be bringing their work to this year's festival. 25% of all Commissioners Club donations go directly into an artist fund to be awarded as $500 stipends to producers who qualify. With the generous support from members of our Commissioners Club, this year we were able to fund 24 separate productions.

The following productions were selected by random lottery, and will receive a one-time stipend toward registration, venue, and/or production costs at the 2025 Hollywood Fringe Festival:
